My aura - the energy force that surrounds every living thing - was silver and lavender; a distinct mix of angel and human. The white-tiled room was almost bare: just a hand towel and a bar of dusty-looking soap, as if the shower in here was rarely used. He's supposed to be her guardian but he's not supposed to her crouch. Jul07, Brianna marked it as to-read. Why does that have to be wrong or dirty? He snorted slightly.

She is the Preliator, the only one in the world who wields a sawed-off reaper-slay friend waves me in and I follow her, but she gets into the elevator before I do and then I'm stuck there like a spanner with my empty hotdog buns. I also love Court's mythology.
