Occurrences of null and overt subjects in EP and BP In order to have an overview of what Forros think of themselves and other ethnic groups in the country, I gathered the main stereotypes that were mentioned during the interviews with my adult Forro participants. Instead of living in the capital, I decided to live the plantation experience, about a one hour car ride or two hours in iace, a van in which Santomeans can fit numerous people and goods from the capital.

WhenIstartedtoliveabroad,Iexperiencedracedifferently. This will be discussed in the following sections, and in Chapters 7 and 9. The author considers ethnic groups to be the product of self-ascription and identification.
