The Basquemen learned what news they could from pirates and smugglers who passed through on larger errands and disdainfully accepted the charity of the Church when it was offered, but caught as they were between two great warring forces, the Basquemen and their families were soon left to fend for themselves to pass that brutal winter. And it was totally taken away. They think they want to see – woo, woo, woo – you know, weird stuff – tables floating around, or people even being healed psychically or .
