Weloveagoodtuktukphoto.Website:ravensongsroost. You could skip the towns altogether, but the temptation of sleeping in a hotel, eating at restaurants, sampling the local beers, and using an actual toilet will be hard to resist. This is doubtless typical of the Mount Hood area, but was a new experience for us Southern hikers used to pine straw, leaf litter, or red clay under our boots. Mount Hood looms in the distance, visible from any high ground in Portland, weather permitting. WaterfallTrailstartsoffpleasantly.Adorable bathroom. One of the sights that always makes me smile in Buddhist regions is when I notice a small stream diversion over to a little wooden structure.
