Macartney Vol. The idea was clearly in the Crystal Palace tradition, but with much more brick than glass; already it was apparent that the careful and conservative Redgrave was concentrating on the best means of lighting and presenting pictures without architectural distractions. Sykes's own master-unofficially but with profound influence-was Alfred Stevens.

Though this was the period when Pitt-Rivers' collection was sited at South Kensington. For the half-day morning, 10 to 1 ; or afternoon, 1 to 3 : 4 for five months. Studios had been attached to the museum when Sykes arrived, and the creation of the buildings had become very much atelier work: fn.

Many of these listings are converted townhouses, often on streets full of other right.
