Appropriate economic and social reforms should be carried out with a view to eradicating all social injustices. The natural expectation for a previously colonized territory, once the colonizing power is abolished, is the reinstatement of its international sovereignty, as it was before the events of colonization. To expose the paternalistic, Eurocentric and arrogant stand of many Northern organizations, we can refer to the speech of French President Nicolas Sarkozy, delivered at Dakar on the 26 th of July, RachelThrasherisaresearchfellowintheFrederickS.TIPsarguedthattheo But the ongoing South American processes have not yet found the right formula for the self-organization of the populations towards a political outlook – at a governmental level – which would be permanently based on popular control or on forms of self-management. It creates an extremely simple study population for the multinational drug companies to use.
