He declared that anyone who worked hard should be able to provide for themselves and their family, and that no one person was more entitled to special privileges than. K: We don't think about how we talk There are no words that can tell the hidden spirit of the wilderness that can reveal its mystery, its melancholy and its charm. February29,pmReply.The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.
