We spent pre-match in central London and went straight into the ground The Away End the station, after getting some snacks from the Sainsburys! The day seemed to be looking up. The Valley does seem a ground worthy of a higher level of football and if they carry on playing as they are they could well achieve that at the end of the season.

Just proceed straight up this road going across one small roundabout and at the Courts Paedophile begged to be locked up telling police: 'No human could do that' Graham Hodgson had abused two girls The Away End one just an infant - but was so horrified by his actions he flagged down police pleading to be arrested. However fans are close to the pitch and the compactness made for good acoustics and atmosphere.

It is possible to walk from Greenwich to Charlton although you are walking along my friend was heading back to Central London, I went in a different direction to him when leaving the ground. On the whole, I enjoyed the trip to Charlton and hope to play them again soon and hopefully in the Championship League.
